

"We are also demanding an increase in the amount paid under the voluntary separation scheme (VSS) offered by the management. The company is offering between Rs 8 lakh and Rs 10 lakh as VSS. Most employees here have been working with the company since the beginning and they should be given Rs 30 lakh as one-time settlement amount," he said.

Earlier this month, the GMEU submitted a memorandum to the Vadodra Collector, seeking intervention. "Employees are also demanding that the new company financial advice and pre-transfer visits to Talegaon. Since announcing our manufacturing consolidation in 2015, we have worked with our employees and suppliers to ensure a smooth transition."

The other issue is the future of the Halol unit. The GM spokesperson said the company was working towards "the sale of the Halol manufacturing facility". A subsidiary of China's top carmaker SAIC Motor Corp. has been planning to acquire the Halol plant. However, the deal is yet to materialise, an official source said. General Motors started its
